

Mothers and Daughters and a Family of Horses

Join us for this magical and meaningful day created especially for mothers and their daughters to , strengthen their relationship, and to better understand themselves and each other in times of challenge.

Date: May 22, 2022

Time: 9:00am -4:00pm

Location: Pebble Ledge Ranch, Novelty (15 minutes northeast of Chagrin Falls)

Facilitated by Jackie Stevenson, Samareh Moussav and, and the Pebble Ledge herd Fee: $200 per family

The mother-daughter relationship is a life-long treasure and one of the most challenging and important relationship in our lives.

Guided by horses and nature this retreat day is an opportunity to enjoy quality time together, grow your connection to each other, offer and receive support, and learn from each other as part of a community of daughters and their mothers..

The day will include play with horses, honest conversations around the campfire, time to connect with daughters in one group and mothers in another group and opportunities for daughters and mothers to be together.

Be prepared to be safe, discover something meaningful to you and have fun

There is no horse riding...the horseplay is relational and takes place on the ground

Observing and interacting with horses in their herd provides a lived experience to; build on strengths, face challenge with courage and compassion

From our herd we can learn to be a more caring family where everyone belongs, everyone is essential and everyone matters
